Emblems, like many things, have been reproduced many times, in various qualities over the years. We have them all of course, as we are dealers for everyone as well as manufactures, but we only ship what Sy considers the best available at the time. If you have questions, or a preference on something, please give us a call. We price match, check our price match policy. Trust us, Sy researches this stuff and we can help explain differences, etc.
